Walking the path of Christ with love and service through a Catholic Education.

Class Notes...

What a week! Hopefully, everyone can remain healthy for the next few weeks. We all were back today. With the small groups that were here, I put plan B into place and we did a lot of hands on learning so that those who were out didn't get behind.

The December reading log went home today. Please return the November log if you haven't already done so. Also, please continue to go through the word sheets that were sent home. The kids can earn some cool rewards when then can read all of them.

Advent begins on Sunday. We will be making Advent wreaths next week to use at home.

St. Nick will be coming Tuesday night in time for St. Nicholas Day on Wednesday. We will be learning more about him next week.

Also, we will not attend Mass next Wednesday, but will go on Friday for the Feast of the Immaculate Conception.

Check the school newsletter for more information!
