Walking the path of Christ with love and service through a Catholic Education.

Class Notes...

Happy Groundhog Day! We learned about groundhogs today and that we should have an early spring. Hopefully, Phil was correct.

Catholic School Week activities were fun. The kids enjoyed the dress up days and the projects.

First graders are leading the morning announcements in February. Your child will have a practice prayer and pledge sheet sent home the night before they lead. Our first two leaders did a great job!

A February reading log was sent home today. Please continue to have your child read as often as possible. Also, please keep track of the number of books read each month. From Thanksgiving through January, first graders read 432 books. Amazing!

You will find a Parent Connection booklet in the folders tonight. Please keep these at home for your information. First graders will be starting these lessons shortly.

I will be assigning book reports in a few weeks. Next week, we will learn how to write a good book report. After that, reports will be assigned. Look for more info to come.

Next week, is a short one, so we will be having our Spelling test on Thursday. Please check the school newsletter for more information.
