Walking the path of Christ with love and service through a Catholic Education.

Class Notes...

We have been doing quite a bit of writing! Last week we wrote about being in space, and this week, we've written our own ideas to "This Little Piggie Went..." The students did very well and I can see great improvements in their writing skills.

Family Life has started. We have finished lesson 5 this week and will do lessons 6-9 next week. We have had some good discussions about our gifts from God, our feelings, and trusted adults. When the books are completed, they will be sent home for you to view.

Please return February's Reading Log by Feb. 29. Also, send the number of books your child has read at home. We need a count for our Reading Assembly on Wednesday, Feb. 28.

We have been learning how to do book reports. We have done both fiction and informational text (non-fiction). Each day we have a silent reading time where kids can read or work on book reports to earn rewards. I'm very impressed with the good work I have seen on these reports.

Please check the school newsletter for more information.
