Walking the path of Christ with love and service through a Catholic Education.

Class Notes...

Halloween is in the air! We've had another very busy week at school. I hope you enjoyed the pumpkin photos. The kids had a great time measuring, weighing and cleaning out the "guts" of the pumpkins. Next week, we will taste the cooke seeds and graph our favorites.

We also enjoyed hearing about being a firefighter from Mr. Petersen.

We made some cool planet posters which I hope to hang up. Ask your child about the planets:)

Next Wednesday is All Saint's Day. Please have your child dressed in their costume over their Wednesday Mass clothes. They will change after Mass.

On Tuesday, Halloween, students may wear a black/orange/Halloween top with their usual dress code bottoms.

Finally, please return the October reading log next week, along with how many books your child has read. Reading skills are coming along well:)
